G4S AWARDED SOUTH AUSTRALIAN ELECTRONIC MONITORING CONTRACT

Melbourne, Thursday 30 May 2019

The Department for Correctional Services in South Australia has this week awarded G4S a new 3 year contract for Electronic Monitoring services.

G4S were first awarded the contract to provide Electronic Monitoring services to the department in 2000.

As part of the new contract the enhanced service offering includes the introduction of the latest technology, bringing increased resilience and monitoring software functionality to enhance community safe.

G4S is working with the State of South Australia on the implementation of the new equipment and system. All offenders subject to Electronic Monitoring will be transitioned to the new equipment by the end of year.

Managing Director for G4S Australia and New Zealand, Joe Sofra, said:

“G4S is delighted to be awarded the new contract for Electronic Monitoring services in South Australia, and the opportunity to deliver the latest technology to support the State deliver a safer community and contribute to reducing reoffending. This new contract helps reaffirm G4S’ standing in the provision of correctional services and technology, and we are delighted in the opportunity to extend our strong partnership with the Department and State of South Australia”
